In this course you will learn the basic of Quantum Education and practical tools to implement a new paradigm in Education "with Consciousness" necessary in these times of great changes.

The contents are designed to prepare us to understand and apply Quantum Pedagogy taking into account the multi-dimensional potential and the real needs of children and youth for the times ahead.

We understand by Quantum Education a branch of Educational Sciences that combines and intertwines:

- Neuro-science
- The last pedagogical tools

International Institute of Education 300040005000

- Quantum Psychology
- Ancestral knowledge
- And new paradigms introduced by Quantum Physics.

Benefits

We will learn how:

- To seek balance, for a harmonious holistic learning process and better academic results
- To attend and enhance Emotional Intelligence from a quantum perspective in order to have a “zero stress smooth Education”, both for student and for teachers and parents
- To provide a significant raise and expansion of consciousness and ethic
- And to be able to offer multi-level teachings, matching the abilities of today’s children and youth.

Quantum Education deeply respects each other's learning process and the inter-connexion of everything.

It introduces the new paradigms of a new society, of peace and of solidarity. The benefits of the course are that it is both based on solid scientific research and on applied tools on how to introduce practically all these new paradigms in Education, in a fun and easy way.

7 modules

This course will be given in 7 modules:

1. Presentation of the course of Quantum Education.
